

A SON FOR ZECHARIAH

Luke 1:5-25

Luke 1

⁵In the time of Herod king of Judea there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the priestly division of Abijah; his wife Elizabeth was also a descendant of Aaron. ⁶Both of them were upright in the sight of God, observing all the Lord's commandments and regulations blamelessly. ⁷But they had no children, because Elizabeth was barren; and they were both well along in years.

⁸Once when Zechariah's division was on duty and he was serving as priest before God, ⁹he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to go into the temple of the Lord and burn incense. ¹⁰And when the time for the burning of incense came, all the assembled worshipers were praying outside.

¹¹Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing at the right side of the altar of incense. ¹²When Zechariah saw him, he was startled and was gripped with fear. ¹³But the angel said to him: "Do not be afraid, Zechariah; your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you are to give him the name John. ¹⁴He will be a joy and delight to you, and many will rejoice because of his birth, ¹⁵for he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He is never to take wine or other fermented drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit even from birth. ¹⁶Many of the people of Israel will he bring back to the Lord their

God. ¹⁷And he will go on before the Lord, in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to their children and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous—to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

¹⁸Zechariah asked the angel, "How can I be sure of this? I am an old man and my wife is well along in years."

¹⁹The angel answered, "I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to tell you this good news. ²⁰And now you will be silent and not able to speak until the day this happens, because you did not believe my words, which will come true at their proper time."

²¹Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah and wondering why he stayed so long in the temple. ²²When he came out, he could not speak to them. They realized he had seen a vision in the temple, for he kept making signs to them but remained unable to speak.

²³When his time of service was completed, he returned home. ²⁴After this his wife Elizabeth became pregnant and for five months remained in seclusion. ²⁵"The Lord has done this for me," she said. "In these days he has shown his favor and taken away my disgrace among the people."

CRAFT/ACTIVITY: ANGELS

Students will make paper plate angels to remind them that Gabriel, an angel of the Lord, appeared to Zechariah to announce that he and his wife Elizabeth would bear a son named John.

MATERIALS

1. Paper Plates
2. Stapler
3. Markers, Crayons, or Colored Pencils
4. Glitter
5. Yarn
6. Doilies
7. Star Stickers
8. Scissors
9. Glue

DIRECTIONS

1. Cut and fold paper plates following the diagram above.
2. Staple the robe together with a stapler.
3. Color the robe with markers, crayons, or colored pencils.
4. Add star stickers.
5. Glue on doilies to the back of the angel heads.
6. Glue yarn to the head of the angel.
7. Glue on a piece of yarn to hang the angel with.
8. Glue on glitter (optional).

FOR DISCUSSION

As students are working on their angels, remind them of how God heard Zechariah's prayer for a child. God honored his request and sent Gabriel, the angel, to tell Zechariah the good news. Help students understand that God hears our prayers even today. Review the memory verse below with you students.

A SPECIAL REPORT ON LUKE 1:5-25

A SON FOR ZECHARIAH

Zechariah was a priest who was married to a woman named Elizabeth. They both wanted to have children, but Elizabeth was barren and unable to. Both Zechariah and Elizabeth were very old but they still prayed for a child.

When Zechariah was serving in the temple, an angel of the Lord appeared to him. Zechariah was scared but the angel said to him, “Do not be afraid. Your prayer has been heard. You will have a son. His name will be John. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit even from birth. He will prepare the way of the Lord.”

Zechariah asked, “How can this be? My wife and I are old.”

The angel said, “I am Gabriel. I have been sent to tell you the good news. You will not be able to speak until your son is born because you did not believe me.”

When Zechariah came out of the temple, he could not speak. The people realized that he had seen a vision in the temple. Zechariah made signs because he was unable to speak.
