

THE WORKERS IN THE VINEYARD

Matthew 20:1-16

Matthew 20

¹“For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire men to work in his vineyard. ²He agreed to pay them a denarius for the day and sent them into his vineyard.

³“About the third hour he went out and saw others standing in the marketplace doing nothing. ⁴He told them, ‘You also go and work in my vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.’ ⁵So they went.

“He went out again about the sixth hour and the ninth hour and did the same thing. ⁶About the eleventh hour he went out and found still others standing around. He asked them, ‘Why have you been standing here all day long doing nothing?’

⁷“‘Because no one has hired us,’ they answered.

“He said to them, ‘You also go and work in my vineyard.’

⁸“When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, ‘Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last ones hired and going on to the first.’

⁹“The workers who were hired about the eleventh hour came and each received a denarius. ¹⁰So when those came who were hired first, they expected to receive more. But each one of them also received a denarius. ¹¹When they received it, they began to grumble against the landowner. ¹²‘These men who were hired last worked only one hour,’ they said, ‘and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the work and the heat of the day.’

¹³“But he answered one of them, ‘Friend, I am not being unfair to you. Didn’t you agree to work for a denarius? ¹⁴Take your pay and go. I want to give the man who was hired last the same as I gave you.

¹⁵‘Don’t I have the right to do what I want with my own money? Or are you envious because I am generous?’

¹⁶“So the last will be first, and the first will be last.”

CRAFT/ACTIVITY: CLOCKS

Students will make a clock to remind them that the landowner hired men every few hours to work in his vineyard. When it came time to pay each worker, they were all paid the same.

MATERIALS

1. 67 lb. Cardstock
2. Clock Pattern
3. Scissors
4. Hole Punch
5. Paper Brads
6. Glue
7. Crayons, Markers, or Colored Pencils
8. Paper Plates

DIRECTIONS

1. Make copies of the “Clock Pattern” onto 67lb. cardstock for each student.
2. Have students color the clock hands and numbers with crayons, markers, or colored pencils.
3. Have students cut out the numbers and clock hands.
4. Allow students to glue the numbers onto the paper plate.
5. Punch a hole through the black dots on the two clock hands with a hole punch.
6. Using a paper brad, affix the clock hands to the center of the paper plate.

FOR DISCUSSION

As students are working on their clocks, remind them of how the landowner went out every few hours to hire workers for his vineyard. It was not until the landowner began payment, that the first hired men began to complain. Though they all agreed to work for a denarius, the first hired felt they deserved more because of the amount of work they did relative to the last ones hired. The landowner chose to be generous to all he hired regardless of how much they worked. Our Father in heaven extends the same offer to us. Regardless of when we became a Christian, we all will receive eternal life with Him if we receive Him as our Savior. Even those who have only been Christians a short while will receive the same glorious gift.

TIME NEEDED TO COMPLETE: Approximately 15 minutes

THE BIBLE TIMES HERALD

A SPECIAL REPORT ON MATTHEW 20:1-16

THE WORKERS IN THE VINEYARD

Jesus said that the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers to work in his vineyard. He agreed to pay the workers a denarius for the day and sent them to work in his vineyard.

Later, the landowner hired more men. And even later he hired more men.

When evening came, the owner of the vineyard had the foreman pay each man a denarius. The men who worked all day were upset to earn the same amount as the men who worked for only a short time.

The landowner said, "Don't I have the right to do what I want with my own money?"

For more details, please read Matthew 20:1-16 in your Bible.
